Old Business:

Review and approval of Rebound Program. There was still discussion regarding this program. Chief Schneider did reach out regarding how the program performed through pandemic and was told; the program exceeded. The biggest advantages seen for members was getting services when elective surgeries were shut down, the members of the Rebound Program were able to get services. Director Houston, inquired as to the network not ready being ready and why this is on track for approval to join. Chief Schneider informed her Rebound has been working with MEM on the network and there are four other departments having the same discussions to move forward and be ready to jump in when launched. Chief Schneider will get a list of doctors being chosen for this network. Director Houston would like proof of infrastructure and statistical data during the pandemic years. Director Houston asked who the other districts are. Chief Schneider informed her there were eight or nine in the Rebound introduction meeting, he stated the districts with MOFAD have not joined, but the districts with MEM, Valley Park, Affton, Cottleville, and us are all considering and having a dialogue.
